

Bryan is a lifelong resident of Lake County, excepting his years studying at The Ohio State University of Columbus, Ohio and the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. He practices law in the areas of estate planning and administration, corporate and real estate as a Partner at the firm Weston Hurd LLP. He pursued his interest in local history by attending and volunteering at Lake County Historical Society events prior to stepping into a leadership role. His goal as a board member is to facilitate community engagement with its history for all. He believes our shared past is a vital tool for building a stronger future and is dedicated to making Lake County's rich heritage accessible, inclusive, and engaging for every member of the community.
